Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Birth and Boyhood of Jesus There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years. - Luke i. 5-7. The scene into which we are introduced by Luke's graphic pen is essentially Jewish - the Holy City, the temple, the solemn service of prayer, the ministering priest, and the waiting people, expecting the re-appearance of Zacharias and his priestly benediction. The time was one of crisis. The Jewish people were at that period of their history fallen to the lowest point, both nationally and spiritually. Their religious life had degenerated into a proud self-righteousness; their national life was broken under the iron rule of Rome. Instead of being humbled by their national misfortunes, they had developed a fierce and fanatical spirit of rebellion toward their earthly masters, and a haughty self-sufficiency before God. The priestly and Rabbinical classes were arrogant and overbearing; the rich oppressed the poor, and lived in disdain of all the softer virtues of life.
