Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Edward Banges the Pilgrim: A Narrative The authentic story of the life of Edward Banges the Pilgrim begins with the arrival of the third expedition to New Plymouth. This expedition was organized and fitted out by Mr. John Pierce and sailed from London with 109 persons about the middle of October, 1622, in the ill-starred ship, the Paragon. Meeting tempestuous weather in the Downs, the Paragon was so much damaged that she was obliged to return to London after fourteen days for extensive repairs. She sailed again December 22d, but encountered such extreme tempestuous weather that, in the middle of February, when about half way across she became dismantled and was finally driven back to Portsmouth, a shattered wreck. Depleted in fortune by the repeated disasters of this expedition, John Pierce sold his interest to the Company and another ship, the Anne, was chartered to transport the sixty people who constituted the final expedition, together with the sixty tons of goods that made up their effects, to the shores of the New World. The Anne, Capt. William Prince, Master, was a ship of 140 tons burden, but was not sufficiently commodious to accommodate the party, so the company purchased the Little James, a fine new pinnace of 40 tons. Mr. Bridges, Master. Together these two vessels made the passage, the Anne arriving at Plymouth in the last days of July and the Little James arriving a few days later, or early in August 1623. The fact of the arrival of Edward Banges with this expedition presupposes that he was a member of the original party. That the majority of such a large company of people...
