The SIP recommends: A community-wide strategy to achieve a virtual work environment enabled by collaborative and analytic tools, and interoperable databases to improve the comprehensiveness and timeliness of our analysis. An IC collaboration center to facilitate the analytic community's move from pilots to enterprise and IC-wide deployment. The center will focus on mapping, testing, and recommending improvements to community analysis and production processes; identifying metrics and codifying best practices; and facilitating the integration of advanced analytic tools. It will work through, and in concert with, existing agency-specific efforts. The breaking down of barriers and the sharing of databases of critical and common concern. The ADCI AP and IC Chief Information Officer (CIO) are focusing initial efforts on a few select databases. These initial efforts will help the analytic community identify potential obstacles to and establish guidelines for future large-scale collaborative efforts. Intelligence Priorities Today's fast-moving threat environment continues to hamper the ICs ability to provide sustained guidance on priorities. Analytic programs are stretching scarce resources against dispersed and shifting priorities in an increasingly operational environment. NIPB members recognize that closer collaboration among IC agencies is the key to improving strategic analysis and warning, and to developing a dynamic national prioritization process. The SIP calls for: NIPB-level collaboration in determining intelligence priorities, reducing unnecessary duplication of effort, and addressing the issue of competing requirements to ensure sustained intelligence focus on priority targets, as well as appropriate emphasis on strategic analysis and global coverage. Increased investment in stra . . . This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
