Excerpt: . has just been sent to the members of the Ohio Builders Supply Association by Secretary J. C. Neely that the next annual convention will be the tenth in number and will be held at the Secor hotel Toledo, Ohio, Feb. 10, 11 and 12. The greatest program in the history of the association has already been arranged and items of vital interest to every dealer in Ohio will be discussed. The Ohio Builders Supply Association has become well known because of the activity it has shown in all questions confronting the builders supply interests and through the practical demonstration of its earnestness as shown in its recent endeavor in connection with the state lien law. There are two meetings held annually by the Ohio association, one of which is conducted in connection with midsummer outing at which its members and their friends take advantage of the opportunity to bask in the sun and enjoy the water of Lake Erie at Cedar Point. The other meeting, which is the more important of the two, is held during the winter in different places of the state. It is at these winter meetings that the annual elections are held and definite action taken on important questions confronting the association. With the threedays session to be held this year, much thought and consideration can be given to the questions before the Ohio dealers. The convention should so enlighten and enthuse them as to send them back to...
